A News Trifecta:

Game Jam Winners Announced! Plus "RPG MAKER UNITE": Expanded macOS Support and a 75% OFF Sale!

Tokyo, Japan – Gotcha Gotcha Games Inc. (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; President: Makoto Narita), a KADOKAWA Corporation group company, is pleased to announce the latest news regarding game development tool RPG MAKER UNITE, from the winners of the official game jam, information on the latest product update, the release of the Mac version, and a 75% OFF sale.

① Game Jam Information

■ Announcing the Game Jam Winners!

The winning entries for the "RPG MAKER UNITE" official game jam, which began in early March 2025, have been decided after a rigorous judging process.
Details of the award-winning games can be viewed on the official game jam website below.

② RPG MAKER UNITE Latest Update Information

■ Great News for Mac Users!

Previously, the macOS version was only available on the Unity Asset Store. So we are excited to announce that the macOS version is now also available for purchase on the Epic

Games Store (EGS)! More Mac users than ever before will be able to access and enjoy creating with RPG MAKER UNITE.

The EGS version requires use of Unity Hub and Unity Editor (2021.3.16f1 or higher), but first-time users can easily set this up by following the setup guide linked below. Functionally the EGS version is identical to the Asset Store version, and UNITE can be launched smoothly from the EGS version's launcher.

For detailed installation and setup instructions, please refer to the official support page below.
